In Memoriam

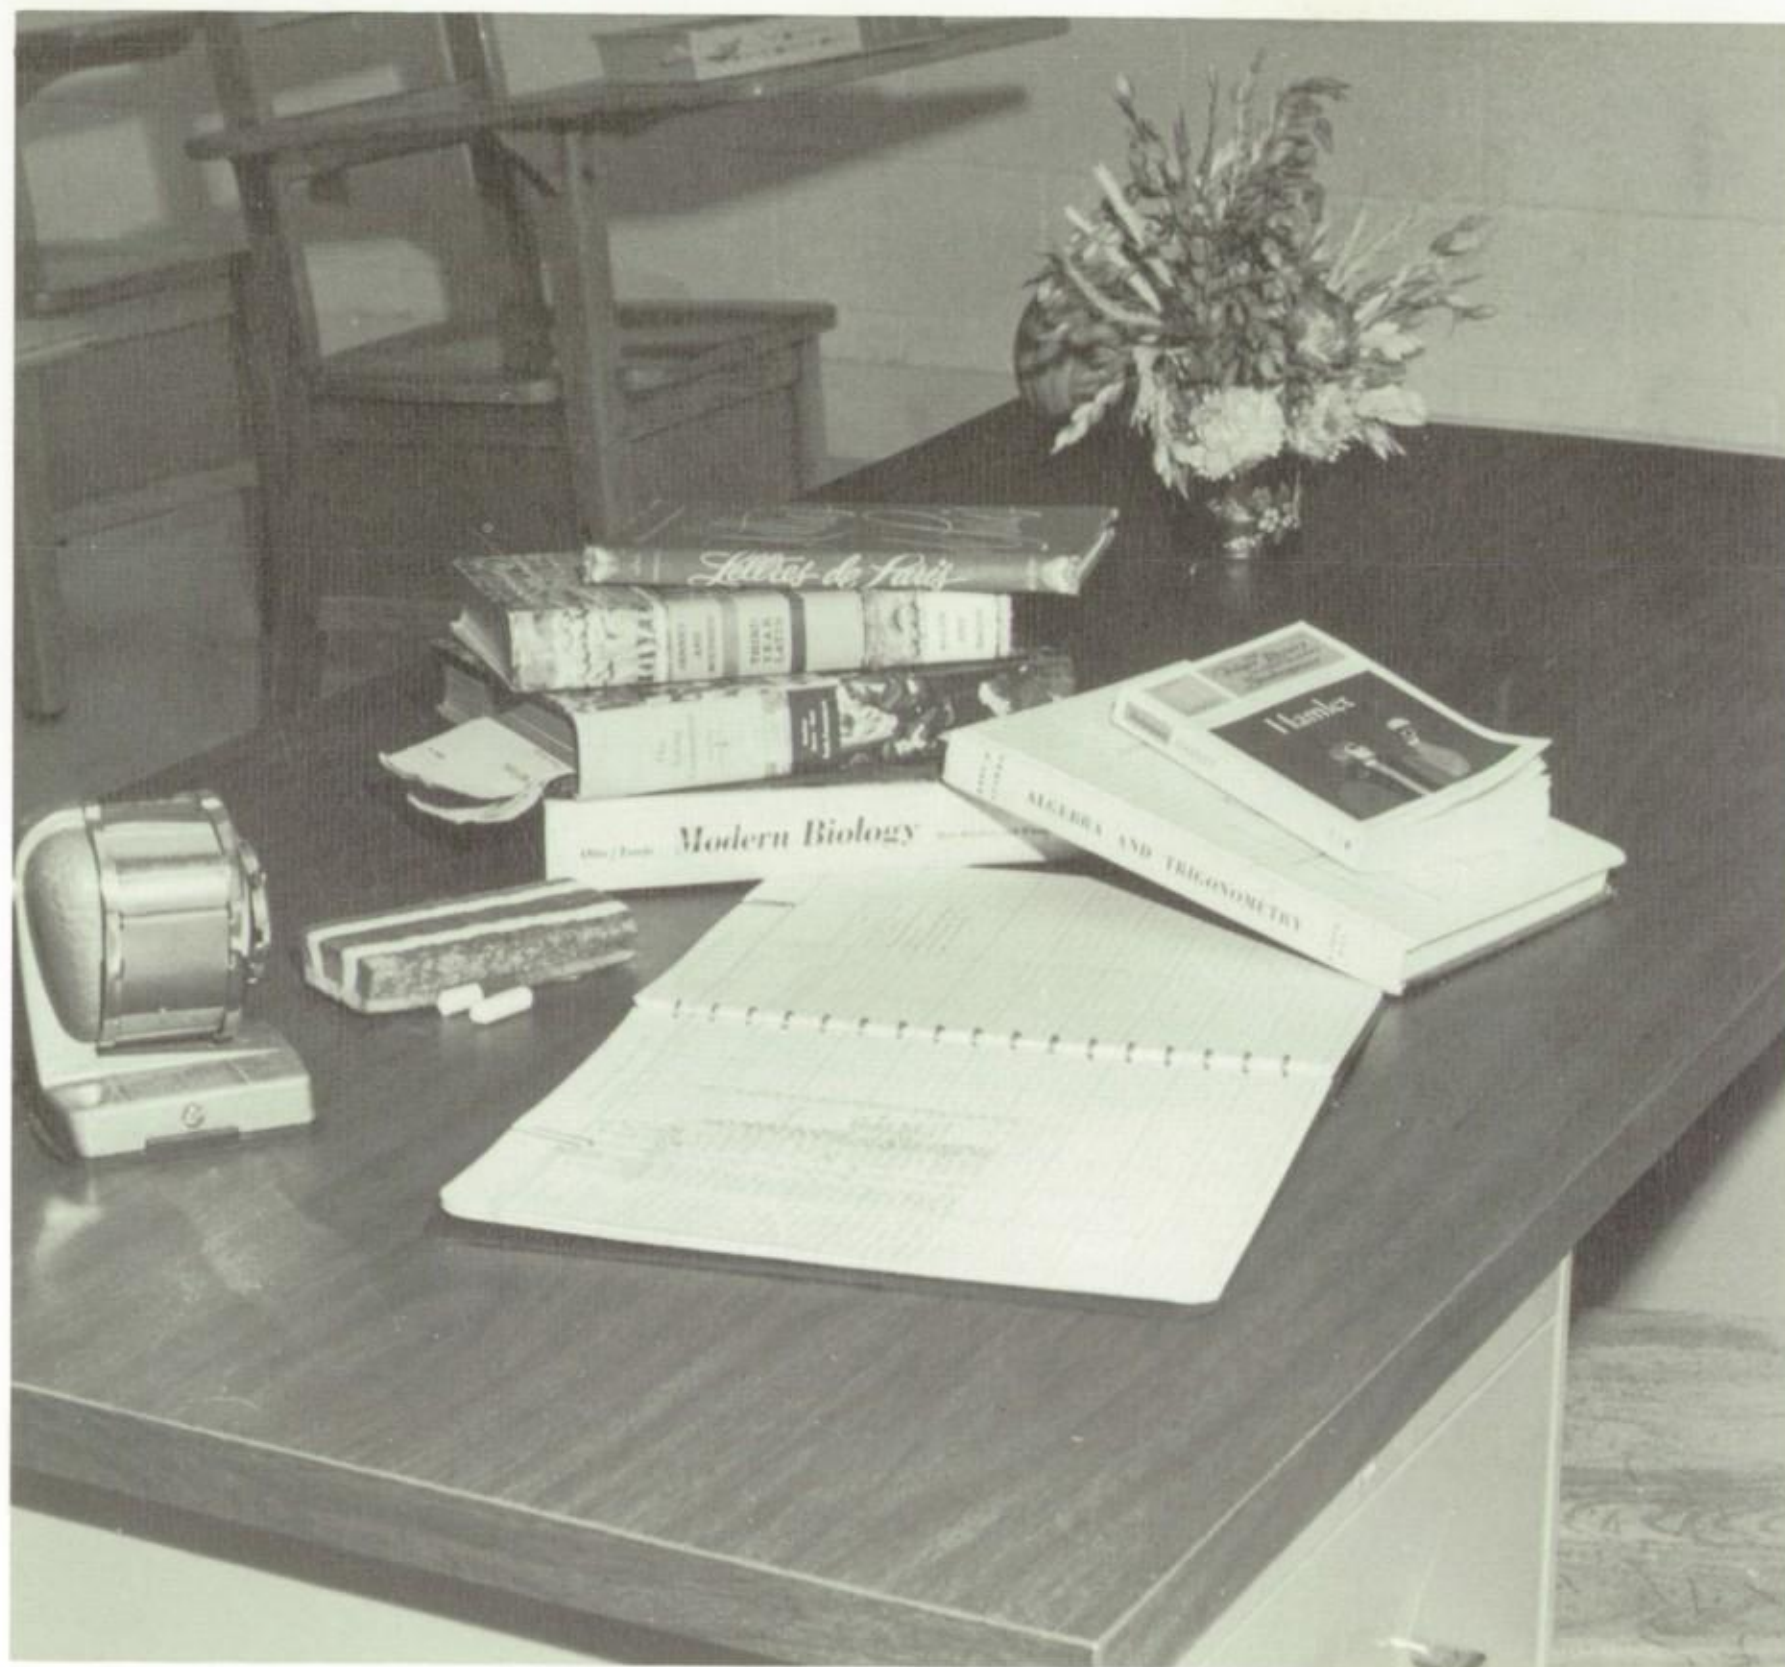

RICHARD COURTNEY WALLACE

Mr. Wallace was a runner. He knew what it was to demand the best of himself on the track and in the classroom. As a teacher and later as a naval officer, he never demanded of anyone else what he did not ask of himself.

He was respected for his character--the depth of his conviction in his beliefs and his dedication to his work and he was loved for an overflowing vitality. His readiness to serve on patrol boats reflected a real concern for the cause he felt was right.

On November 8, 1968, he was in dangerous waters, half a world away--moving landward in command of his swiftboat on a maneuver to locate enemy shore positions by deliberately drawing fire. Lieutenant Wallace died in action.

Action and dedication were keynotes to his character. It was another brave American who gave us the words; Lieutenant Wallace lived them: "Duty, honor, country."

I fear Mr. C. I shouldn't even write anything to you. Normally, I don't speak to Texas haters, but I realize maybe you are ignorant, and I always say the must be nice to be pleasant!
 Besides I adore you - as a person and a teacher. Your chemistry class had got to be my most favorite memory of N.A. We had fun, no? And your friendliness, fairness, and understanding was greatly appreciated, even if you don't like Texas. You are a great man, Mr. C. and I'll never forget you!

The Bulldogs had a winning season this year, compiling a 5-4 record. Led by captains Dan Summitt, Sam Compton, and Dan McClung and coached by Mr. Jones, Mr. Pratt, and Mr. Miller, the team showed fine spirit and a real desire to Hit.

All the games were exciting but the following games were the highlights of the season.

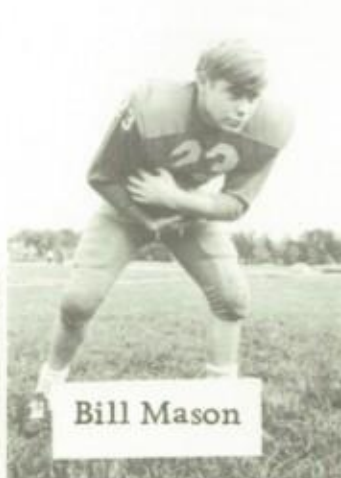

The Academy played V.E.S. on Homecoming in a game that the school and the team can be proud of. The Bulldogs met the hardest hitting team of the year with a number of starting players absent. Many new varsity members saw their first action this game. The team met the challenge head-on and led 21-20 at the half. Although the final score was 51-27 in favor of V.E.S., it was not indicative of the spirit and drive displayed by the team under the personnel handicap.

Playing host to the Barons from Blue Ridge, the powerful Bulldogs got off to a fast start by driving in for a touchdown on the opening series of plays. Sparked by the powerful running game of fullback Ed Early and halfbacks Bill Mason and Pat Fitzgerald, the Bulldogs drove to the Barons' 23rd yard line when on the 4th down, end Bob Beasley maneuvered himself into the end zone and caught a touchdown pass from Bill Lawler.

The Bulldog defense stymied the Barons' offense, holding them to a total of 6 yards. Middle guard Dave Gawrys was the fifth man in the Blue Ridge backfield. Sophomore tackle, Larry Hopkins also played an outstanding game. Ed Early and Fitz also scored to make the final score 20-0.

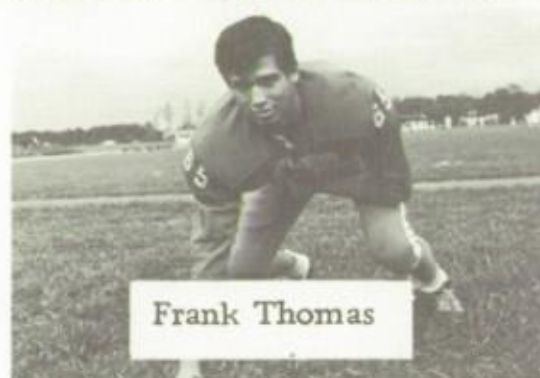

In the Bulldogs' clash with F.M.A. the game went sluggishly throughout the first half. The Bulldogs came back strongly in the second half to defeat the Cubs 20-6. The only score in the first half was a 6-yard pass from Bill Lawler to Bob Beasley. The Cubs also scored, making the half-time score 6-6.

In the fourth quarter, half-back Bill Mason powered his way across the goal line from the 20. Ed Early bulled across for the extra point.

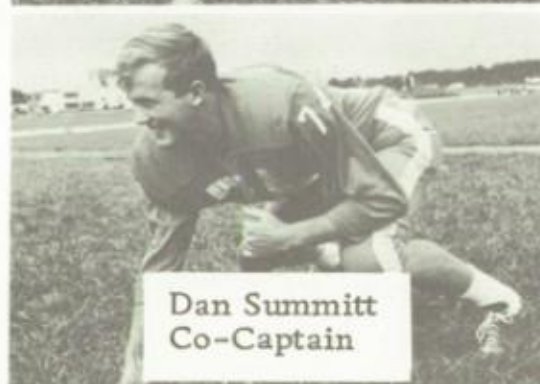

The third touchdown was a lineman's dream. Richard Welton intercepted a screen pass and took it for a touchdown. The final score was 20-6.

The 1968 Junior Varsity Football Team performed especially well against the tougher schools. The team was led by Hunt Harris and Randy Garnett and coached by Mr. Trickler and Mr. Harper.

Under the leadership of Coach Hecker and Mr. Johnston, and co-Captains Gray Eubank and Charlie Gardner, the 1968 Cross-country team enjoyed a winning season of ten wins and three losses. Hampered by the loss of several key runners for most of the season, the team was still able to turn in many good races. Particularly satisfying was the victory over Hampton Roads Academy, previously undefeated. The top seven were usually Rob Eustis, Gray Eubank, Alan Krome, Charlie Gardner, Pierre Croonenberghs, John Ford, and Meade Kampfmuehler.

Varsity Basketball

Able coached by Dave Trickler and Mike Pratt, the 1968-1969 Basketball Team showed some of the finest ability ever. The first team actually consisted of six players whose starting status was the same throughout the season. Captain Grey Eubank, Jim Sellers, Claude Bain, Sam Compton, Bill Coppedge, and Mark Hembree usually started, with Kevin Kanter and Ed Early also seeing a good deal of action. Rounding out the squad, which was composed of nine seniors, were Scott Baldwin, Bill Reed, Keith Bangel, Joe Massey, and Rob Eustis. Eubank, Sellers, and Bain provided the Bulldogs' scoring punch, with Coppedge and Eubank top rebounders, and Compton and Hembree moving the ball.

Early season highlights came in the Christmas Tournament, where the Bulldogs placed second, and in the two point overtime victory over a powerful St. Christopher team from Richmond. Another exciting game resulted in a three point loss to Prep League Champions Collegiate. With a team made up mostly of Seniors, the Bulldogs can look forward to a major rebuilding job after a fine showing in 1968-1969.

J.V. Basketball

The 1969 Bullpups, under Coach Pratt, began the season with the idea of changing last year's 3-16 record to at least 16-3. After their first six games they were 4-2, but the two roughest games of the season had been played.

This year Coach Pratt fielded a team of eleven sophomores, three freshman, and one eighth grader, Larry Fleder. Four of the five starters on this year's team are over six feet tall which should mean rebounding strength. The five starters are Billy Harrison, Butch Palmer, and Richard Lacouture in the forecourt and Rip Montague and Randy Garrett in the back court. Tom Langley, Hunt Harris, Richard Laibstein, and Billy Brock make up a strong bench. This group has much potential and Coach Pratt predicts a good season.

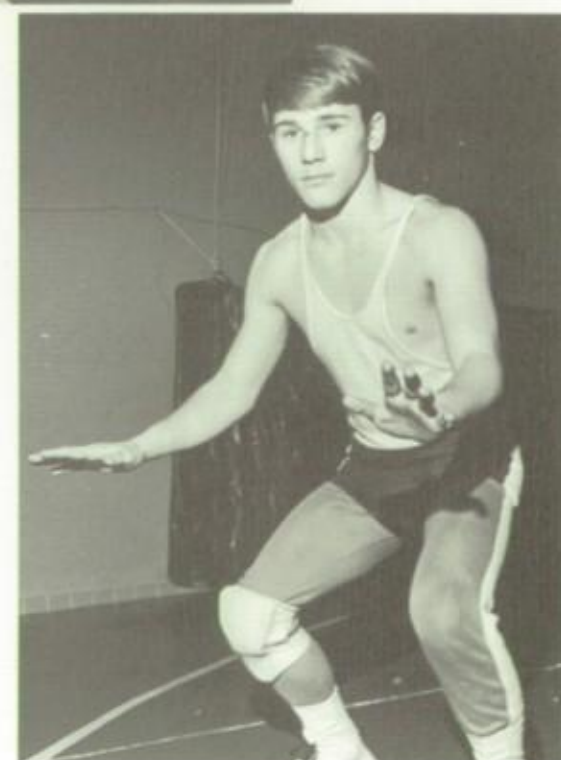

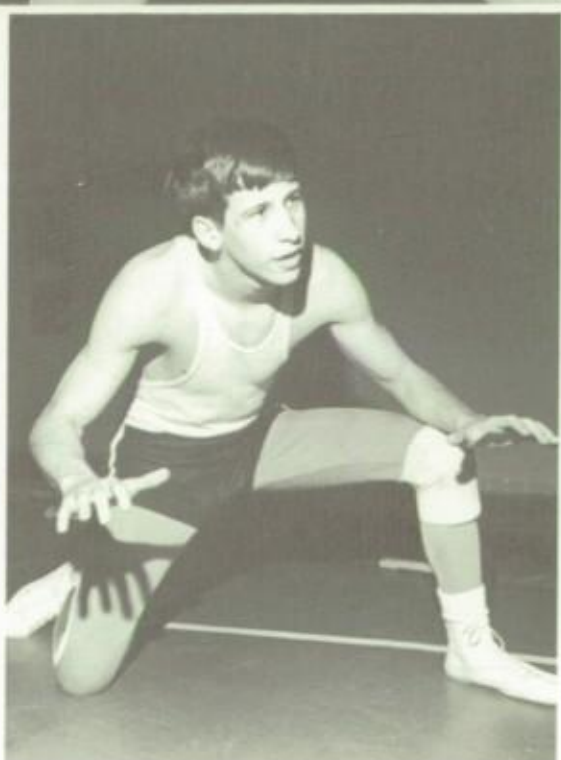

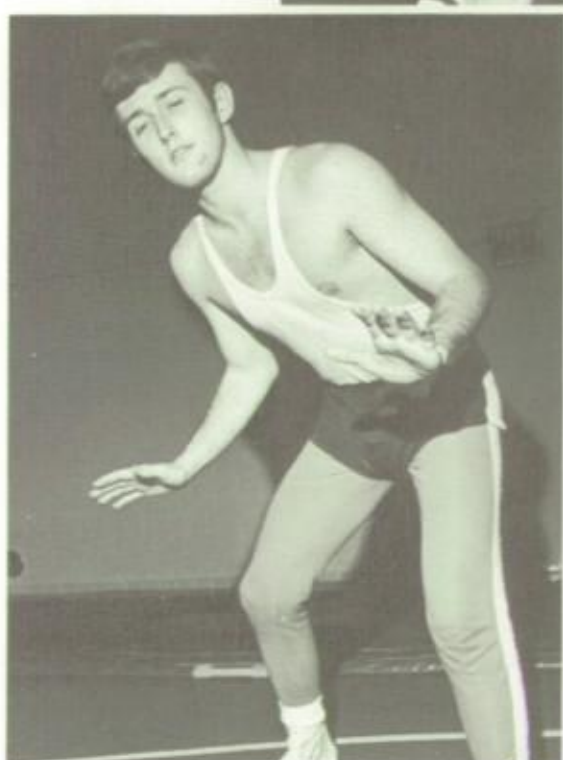

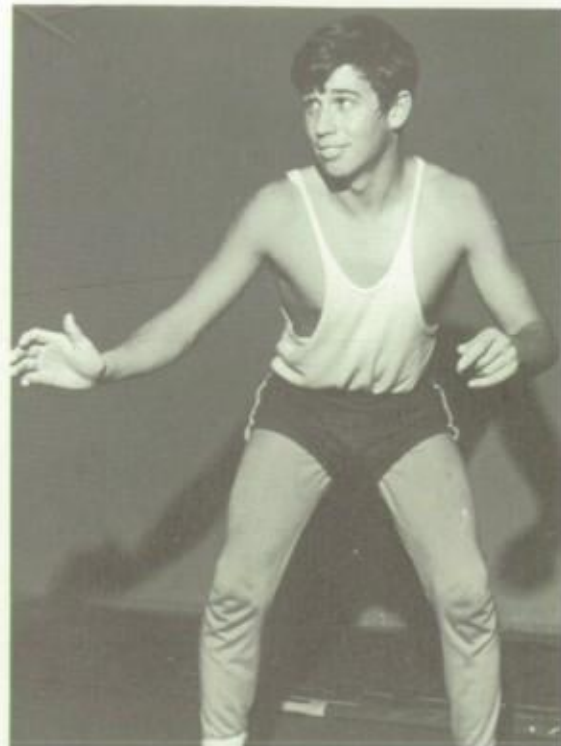

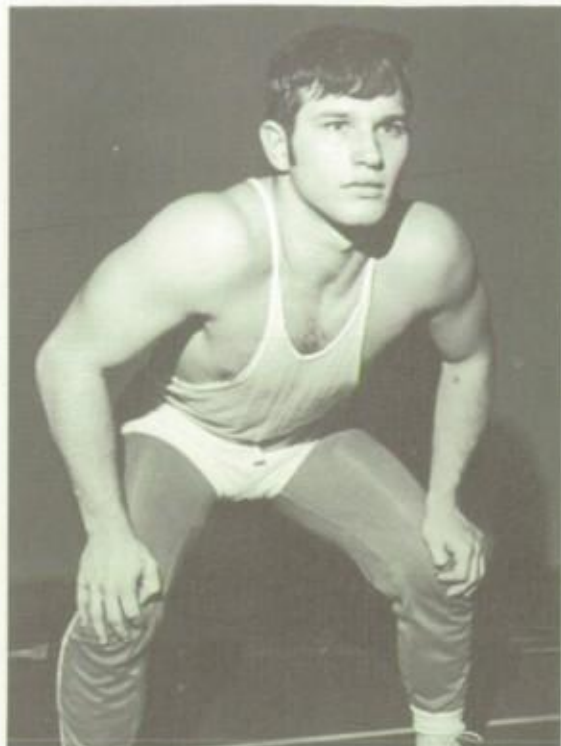

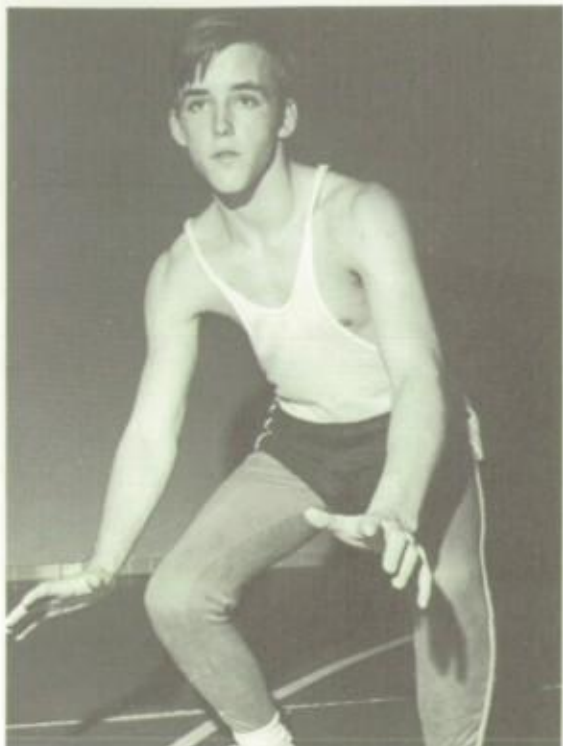

Varsity Wrestling

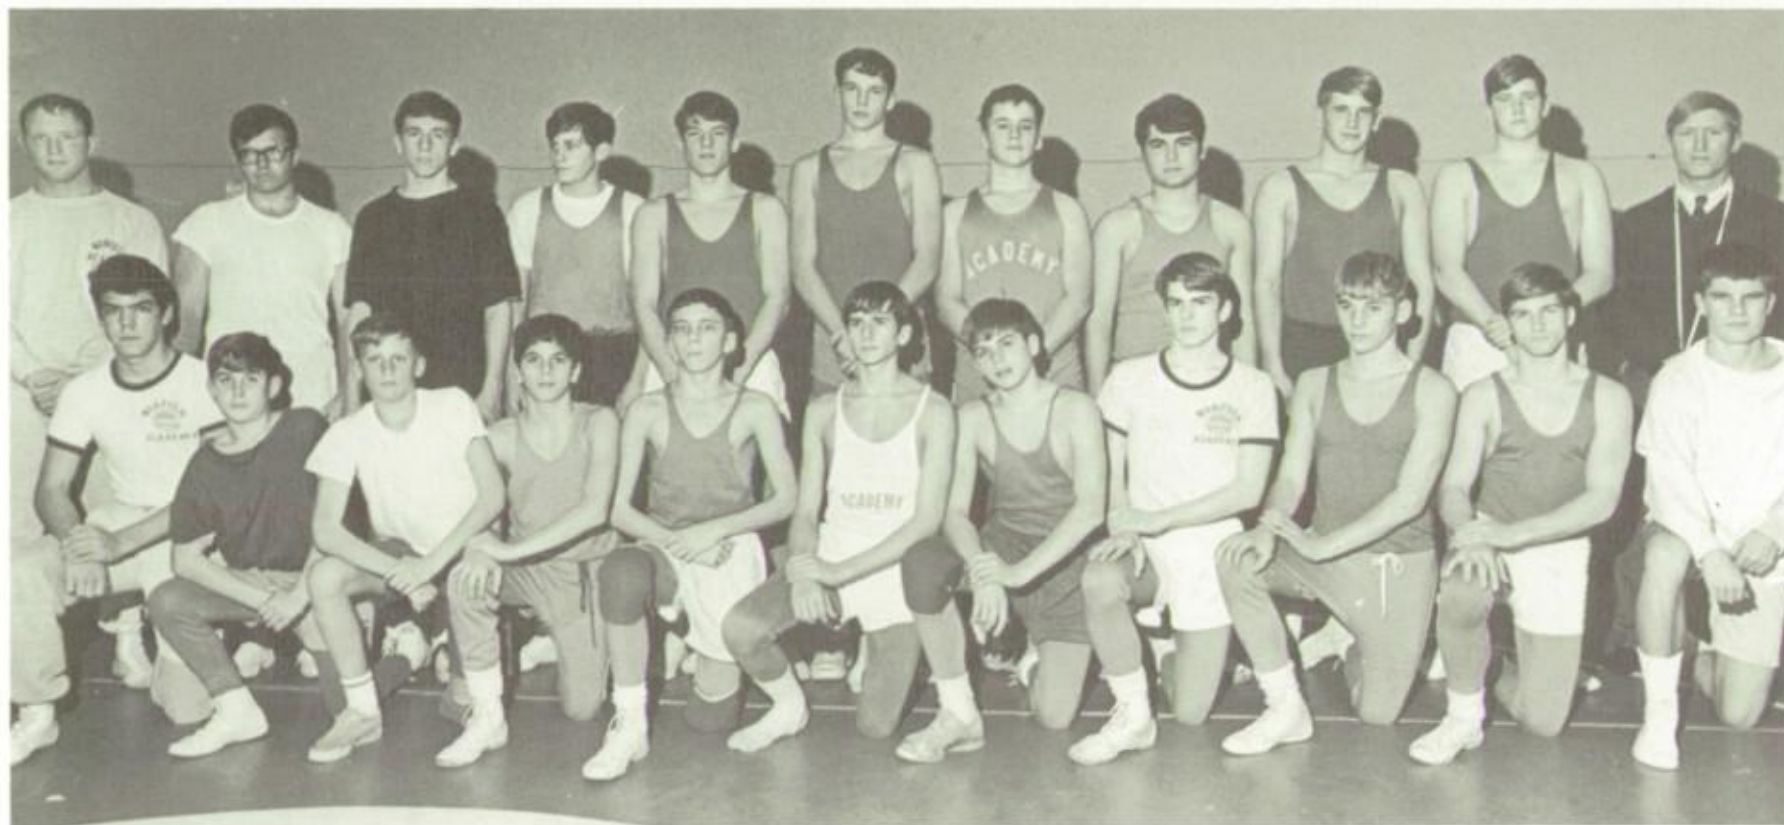

FIRST ROW: S. Summitt, B. Boyd, E. Fink, C. Gardner, B. Armstrong, P. Fitzgerald, R. Fink, J. Cramer.
SECOND ROW: Coach Miller, L. Newark, D. McClung, D. Donahoe, M. Sisson, F. Thomas, D. Gawrys, New-ty Miller.

Having completed six of four matches which compile this season's wrestling schedule, the NA grapplers feel that they are better than their 3-3 record indicates. Two close defeats, both by scores of 22-20 (one to Kempsville and one to Norfolk Catholic) have served to underrate this team. However, we are now working harder than ever as most of the action is yet to come.

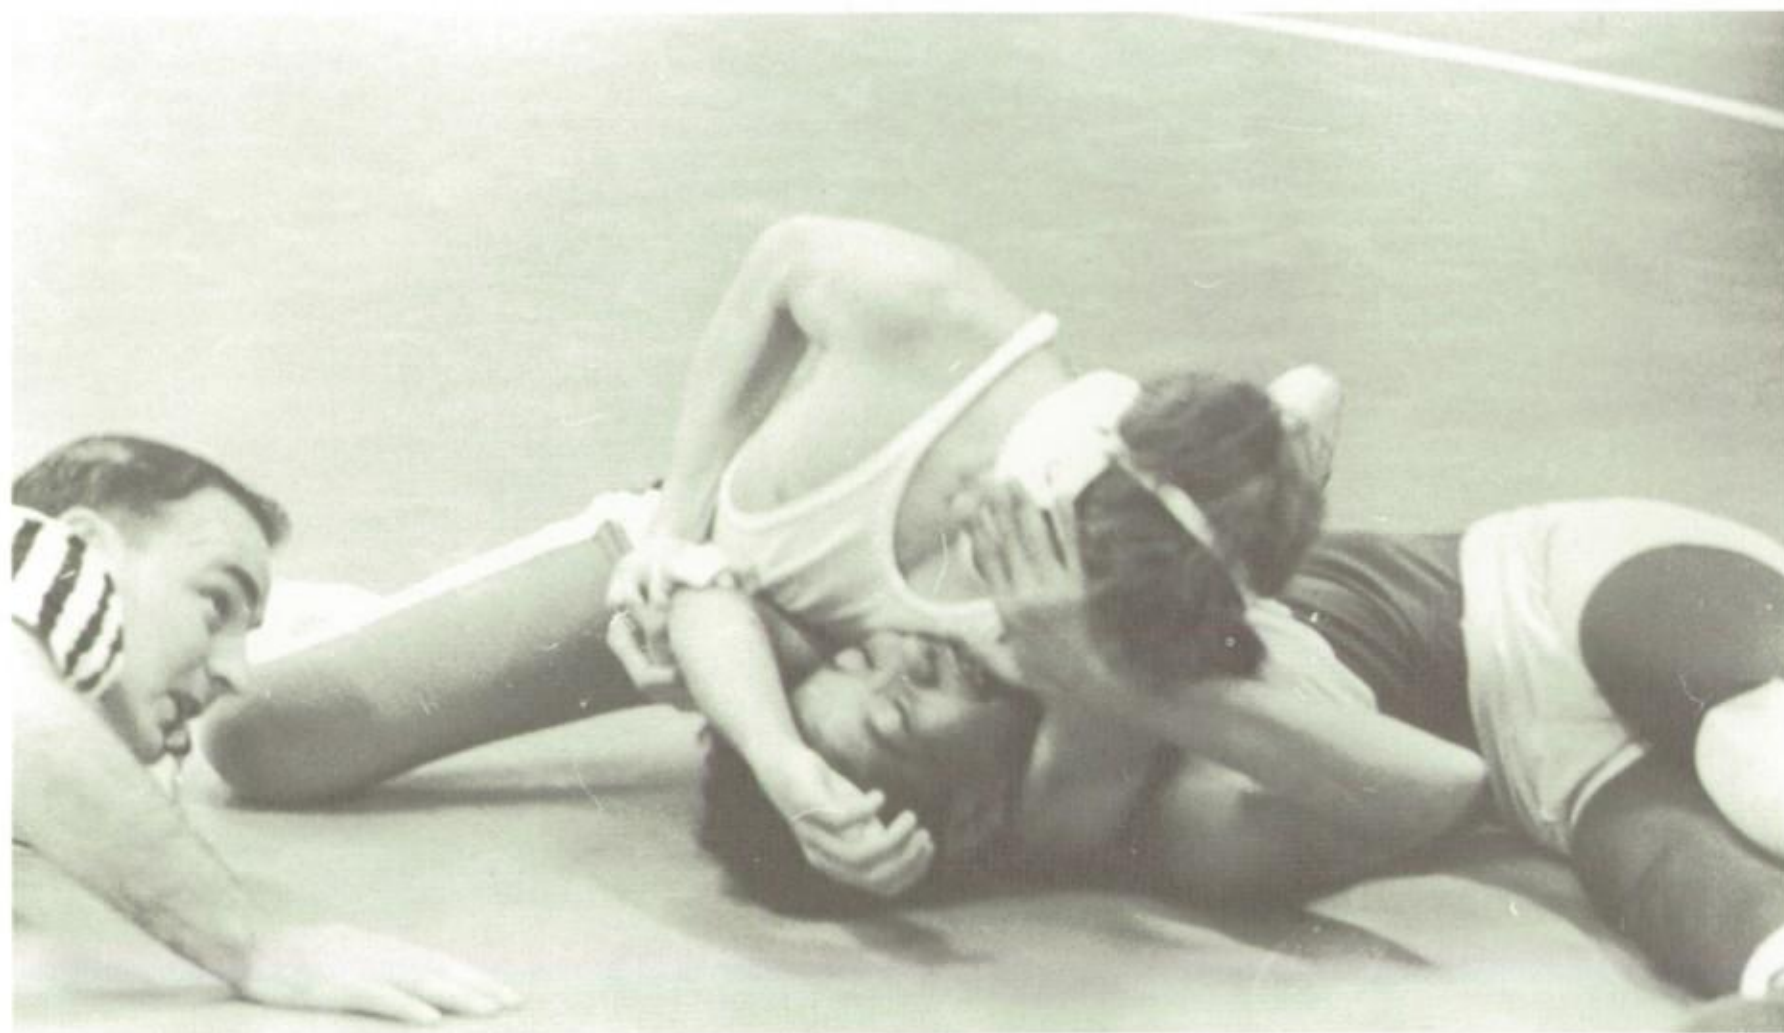

Co-captains Larry Newark and Danny McClung have worked hard to assist Mr. Miller in organizing and instructing the team. Returning lettermen Ed Fink, Charles Gardner, Billy Armstrong, Dave Donahoe, and flashy Frank Thomas have retained positions on the varsity as expected. However, the contributions of new-comers Bob Boyd, Pat Fitzgerald, Steve Summitt, and Dave Gawrys will undoubtedly be the deciding factor in matches to come. Gawrys, whose assets include brains as well as brawn, holds a 5-1 record thus far as our heavyweight.

J.V. Wrestling

FIRST ROW: Coach Jones, E. B. Parlette, K. Scribner, P. Croonenberghs, J. Davis, J. Gustafson, M. Kampfmueller, D. Summitt, B. Mason, F. Coombs, R. Baylor, R. Brimson, W. Rigot. SECOND ROW: I. Steingold, H. Stacey, J. Leary, B. Hume, R. Thomas, R. McLean, P. Magee, R. Belton, B. Lawler, J. Levinson, D. Hirschler, A. Beasley, C. Beaman, M. O'Reilly. THIRD ROW: B. Beasley, S. Bragg, R. After losing their first two games of the season, this year's soccer team came back to win three of their next four games and even their won-lost record at 3-3. The Bulldogs under the coaching of Mr. Jones and Will Stacey, a former Academy player, have displayed a steady improvement throughout the early season. While dropping their first two games to Hampton Roads and St. Christopher's, the Academy booters played somewhat disorganized games. Against Collegiate the Bulldogs put everything together and won the game on a second half-surge. After beating Collegiate, the Bulldogs stopped for the Christmas vacation, only to face a revenge minded Collegiate team soon after the holidays. Falling behind once again, the Bulldogs rallied for two goals in the second half to insure victory.

The two game winning streak ended on the following day, though, as a strong team from Thomas Jefferson took home a 1-0 victory. Although the Bulldogs controlled the game from the first quarter on, they could not manage to score.

Varsity Baseball

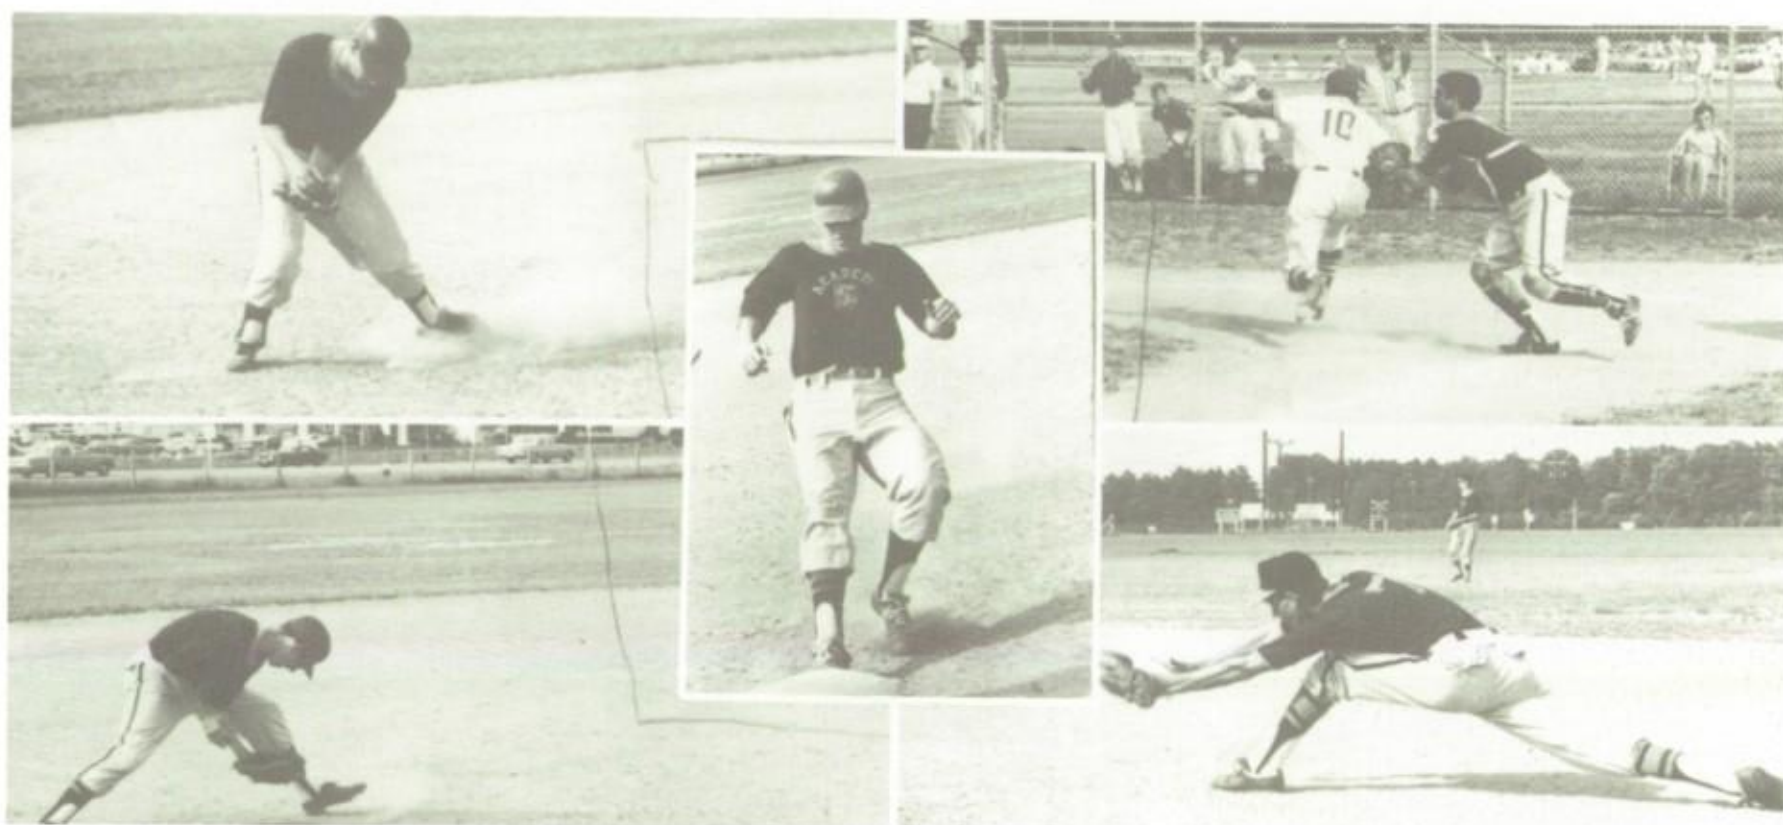

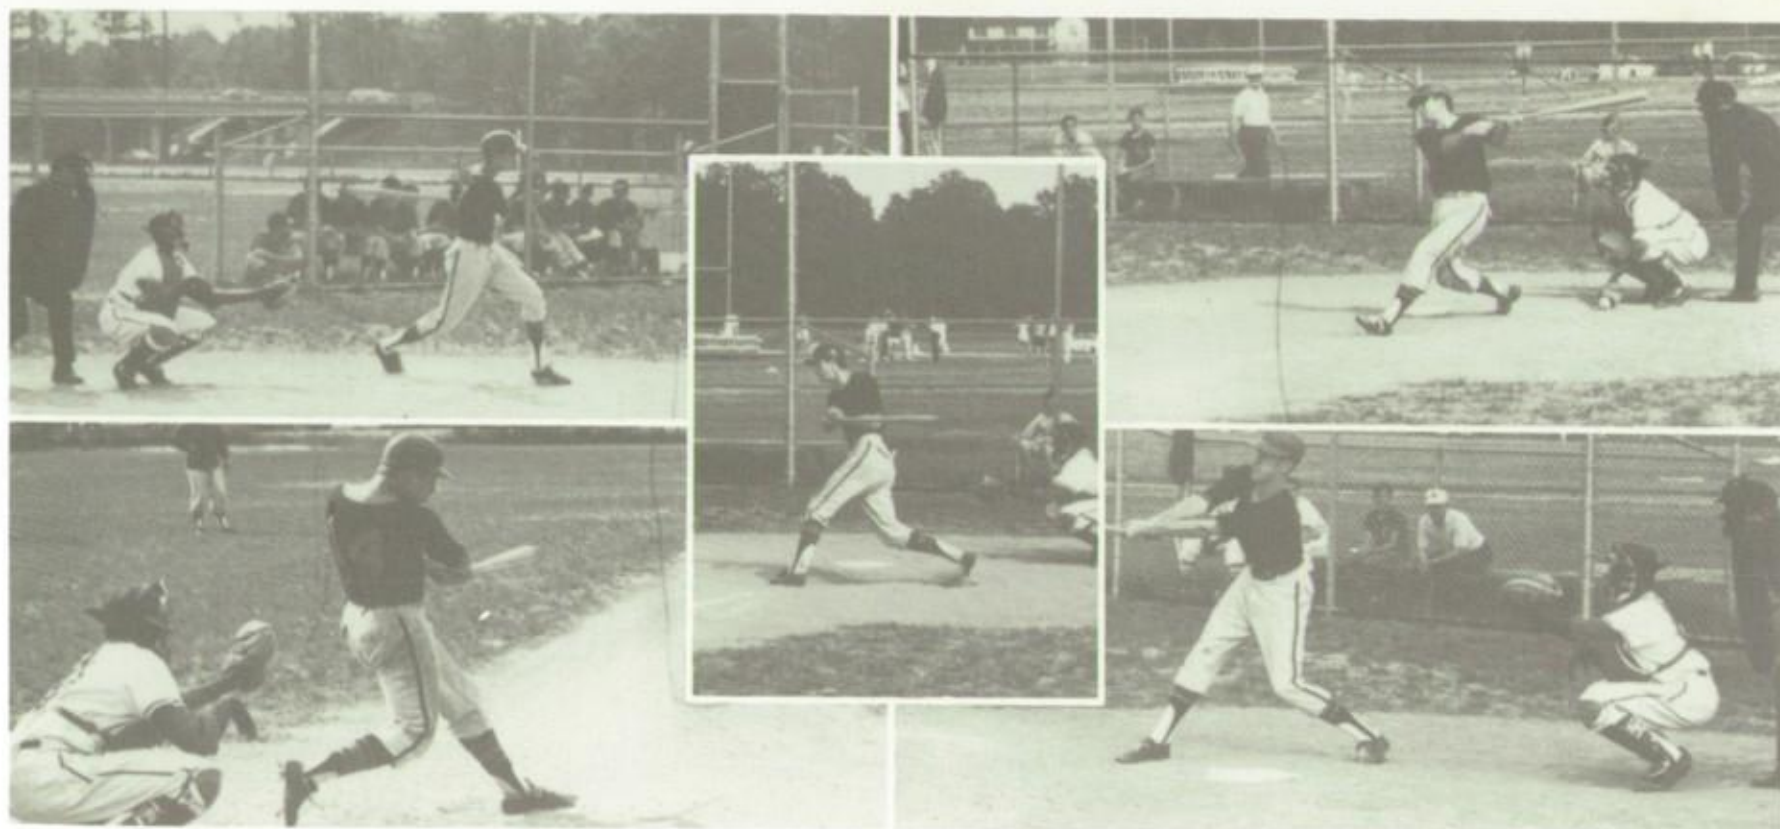

Coach Dave Trickler piloted the Norfolk Academy Baseball Team to its most successful season in the school's history. The Bulldog nine compiled a 15-2 record, losing only to Norfolk Catholic and Carlton Oaks. The highpoint of the season occurred when the Bulldogs defeated their cross-town rival Norfolk Catholic behind the three hit pitching of Bill Coppedge for the Tidewater Conference Tournament title.

Ed Early, Bill Coppedge, and Bill Lawler, probably the most powerful pitching staff in the area, provided the strength on the mound necessary for the victory. Jay Griffin, all utility man Chris Castle, and Bill Mason provided the hitting power. Tommy Andrews, who covered the third base area with his padless wonder, was the team's best fielder. The Bulldogs' impressive record can be attributed to a well-rounded, all-spirited team.

One of the most memorable games occurred when the Academy nine defeated the former state champions, the Warwick Farmers, behind the two-hit pitching of Ed Early and Bill Coppedge. Early, the winner, posted the win as he struck out 14, and Coppedge, in relief, struck out 5. Both runs scored against the Academy hurlers were unearned, resulting from errors. Throughout the entire season, the Academy hurlers yielded only five earned runs, tops in the entire Tidewater area.

The J.V. tennis team, coached by Bill Miller, experienced a fine winning season last year with a 5-2 record.

With over twenty boys vying for ten positions, the J.V. team was a competitive group. The ten boys who successfully qualified for the matches were Bill Brock, Randy Hudgins, Ed Fink, Larry Steingold, Richard Lacouture, Will Marshall, Addie Richardson, Doug Snyder, David Hirschler, and Bobbie Curtis. The Academy competed with Granby, Hampton Roads, Frederick Military Academy, and Suffolk, losing twice to Granby. Our J.V.'s finished second in a tournament at the Academy.

At the Academy, tennis has been known to be one of the strongest sports. This year the team was one of the best, finishing with a 11-3 record.

With several strong letterman returning, plus the addition of new talent from upcoming underclassmen, the team competed in one of its toughest schedules, facing the best in public and private schools, as well as college freshman. Some of the Bulldog stiffer opposition was provided by Woodberry Forest, St. Christopher's, Thomas Jefferson, University of North Carolina, and the University of Virginia.

The ladder was one of the most evenly matched ever, but usually consisted of #1 Hunt Harris, #2 Rob Henderson, #3 Bill Boykin, #4 Dick Hotchkiss, #5 Andy Steingold, #6 Dewitt Boyd, #7 Barbour Rixey. Ira Steingold, Robert Fink, and Jules Levinson provided valuable backup men. The only losses came against a strong North Carolina Team, State Public Champs Thomas Jefferson, and a heartbreaker against archrival Woodberry Forest.

Though the 1968 team was a good one, that of 1969 looks to be better still, possibly the best the school has seen. There are 6 of the top ten returning, plus the fine ability of Billy Brock and other successful J.V. players, who will provide the Academy with memorable seasons to come. Watch for varsity tennis in '69.

The 1968 track team had a losing season, managing only 3 wins while losing 5 and tying in one meet. This record is indicative of the strength of the teams they played as consistently good performances by this year's team produced five school records. In the field events Bobby Hill lowered the high hurdles mark, and John Coppedge threw the discus over 126 feet while finishing second in the city meet. In the running events, the Eustis brothers headed the performances. Each broke the mile and two mile records, with Rob lowering the mile record by ten seconds and Rick lowering the two-mile record by ten seconds. Claude Bain bested the 880 yard dash record and was close to the 440 record.

The prospects for the 1969 track team are bright despite the graduation of John Coppedge, middle distance men Mat Terry and Mike Perrie, Rick Eustis, weight man Dirk Schmidt, and high point man Bobby Hill. Returning in the sprints are Claude Bain, Ralph Belton, and Hank Willet while the middle distance events are headed by Alan Krome, Meade Kampfmuehler, and Pierre Croonenberghs. The distance events will be ably handled by Fran Coombs, Charlie Gardner, and Rob Eustis. The field events will feature Bain, John Grossman, Frank Costenbader, Bill Reed, Ward Rigot.

Hi!

Fliers

Dear Mr. Cottingham,

this has been an experience! I must be your worst student and dumbest! you might even have me next year. What a thought! I've enjoyed this class because it is fun and a challenge - a ~~ch~~ challenge to see if I get a "10" or not.

Dear Mr. Lettingham,

I've learned a lot of chemistry from you, but I really don't think that's its the most important ^{thing} you've taught us, A lot of the little things, which are really the big things, really helped me along. Thank-you for taking the time -

Dear Mr. Cottingham,

Even tho' I am definitely NOT scientifically inclined (and I also have trouble spelling!) I have enjoyed Chemistry because you are such a wonderful person. I don't see how you can put up with morons like me! I may not ever be a credit to you but I think you are a lot of fun and I've learned a lot this year (altho' it wasn't necessarily Chemistry!)

I'll come back and see you next year because I'll be going in Old Dominion - Best of luck always - Be really hard on me next year - Love, Carol Preston accident in the chem. lab. It's really been just sensational having you in my class. After all, Mr. Cottingham the class couldn't have gotten along without you! Seriously, this has been just about my favorite course because of a certain kind and understanding teacher. I'm looking forward to seeing you driving the hockey team next year, and keeping time for the basketball game.

Best Wishes and I hope that your future classes enjoy those brilliant labs as much as I did.
